Group Enjoys Holiday At Derouin Cabin

Back to the mundane, but looking forward to another weekend soon at their Crestline cabin, are the Lawrence Derouins and their three children, Dolores, Sandra, and Richard, who spent the New Year's weekend from Thursday until Sunday at their mountain home.

Enjoying the weekend with the Derouins were Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Challis, the Clarence Colls, Lucille and Raymond Rogers and the Rogers' children Michael and Bill.

Although the snowfall held off until the day of their departure, the group took full advantage of the white flurry on Sunday with skiing, tobogganing, and building of snow men in a temperature of 18 above. Before the welcome snowfall, card games, corn popping, and hiking occupied the jolly group.

Engagement Told At Family Party

A family holiday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Newman, 2021 West 242nd street, was the occasion of the announcement of their daughter, Yvonne's engagement to William E. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Douglas of Garden Grove.

The bride-elect, who is a Narbonne High School senior, has not as yet announced their wedding date.

Her fiancé is now employed in Wilmington, and was formerly with the Air Force during the second World War.
